CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Happenings of Interest Both General and Personal Gathered Around Town.

Mrs. Ashby L. Baker has received notice that her brother, Frank G. Jones, has arrived safely in France.

Mr. Willard Tyler, South Pitt street, who has been ill at the Alexandria Hospital, is recovering.

The body of James W. Appich, a former resident, who died in Washington, was brought here this morning and buried in Bethel cemetery.

Miss Alice V. Harding is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Shelton, at their home in Washington.

Friendship Council, No. 28, Sons and Daughters of Liberty, will give a lawn fete Wednesday evening on the lawn at Odd Fellows' Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Montier, after spending several weeks at Wellington Villa, Fairfax county, have returned to their home at 117 South Royal street.

The Rev. R. Eirich, of Baltimore, will conduct services at Immanuel Lutheran Church at 11 o'clock tomorrow. Subject, "Why I Am a Lutheran."

Miss Margaret Greene, now located in Charlotte, N. C., is spending the week-end with her mother, Mrs. E. B. Greene, 305 North Washington street.

Misses Roberta E. and Sofronia M. Matthews have sold to William B. Dabney a house and lot on the south side of Princess street, between Fayette and Payne streets.

At the morning service at the First Baptist Church tomorrow the Rev. Dr. E. B. Jackson will take for his subject, "How to Read the Bible." His evening topic will be "What Is the Minister's Place."

Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson and little son, Lewis, have returned to their home, 307 North Pitt street after spending the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Quick, Fairfax, Va.

Dr. R. Alonzo Scott, ex-slave, poet, singer and lecturer will preach at tomorrow morning's service at the Alfred Street Baptist Church. Monday at 8 o'clock he will speak on the war in poetry of his own composing. White and colored persons are invited.

The Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, this afternoon conducted the funeral of Paul W. Rudd, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Rudd, held at his parents' residence, 125 South Fairfax street.

Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ P. E. Church, has returned here and will preach at the services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. tomorrow. Sunday School service and Bible class will be held at 9:30 a. m.

At the Second Presbyterian Church tomorrow preaching morning and evening by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison. Morning subject, "True Freedom," suggested by Bastille Day. Evening theme, evangelistic. Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.; Bible class, 10 a. m.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Potomac Association will be held at Falls Church July 24 and 25. All women's missionary societies are entitled to two delegates. Those expecting to attend, it is announced, should send their names to Mrs. G. W. Hawhurst, Falls Church.

President Wilson's promised veto of the Agricultural Appropriation bill fixing the minimum price of wheat at $2.45 was sent to the House yesterday. Attempts to secure immediate consideration of the measure with a view to having the House recede from the amendment were blocked by the absence of a quorum, only 209 members responding to their names.

THEY CALL IT BIG SHOW

Lieut. John A. Scott, This City, Now on Western Front, Writes Interesting Letter to His Mother on Conditions "Over There."

"It is no wonder they call it the 'big show,'" says Lieut. John A. Scott, of this city, now "somewhere in France" in a letter written to his mother, Mrs. Margaret Scott, 521 South Lee street.

His description of events going on "over there" is very vivid. Concerning airplanes, he says:

"The air is full of them always. Last night I couldn't sleep, as we were very close to hostilities. Every gun on the western front must have opened up. I never saw such a sight. The air was a turmoil of buzzing searchlights and machine gun flashes. Several enemy planes had come into our territory and our men were after them. Searchlights for twenty miles were playing on the sky and the aircraft guns were busy."

The writer says the work of the allies' airplanes is wonderful, thirty-five machines of the Huns being accounted for by them during the week previous to the writing of his letter.

LICENSED ATTENDANTS WILL SUPERVISE NURSING OF THOSE NOT GRADUATES

There are in this city women claiming to be capable of caring for the sick and willing to accept substantial fees for their services who not only do not know how to use a hypodermic, but confess that they have never seen one. An instance of this kind took place here not long ago. An attendant was employed for a patient of moderate means through application to an undergraduate register. She was interviewed and questioned regarding her experience and knowledge of simple treatments, and was apparently entirely satisfied with her ability. When the patient's home was reached the nurse on duty was preparing the magic needle and upon telling the newcomer when to repeat the dose, "the cat was out of the bag."

It is from people of this kind that the public is to be, in a measure safeguarded by the introduction of licensed attendants by the State Board of Examiners of Graduate Nurses. Women licensed by this board will give proof of an elementary knowledge of bed-side nursing, cooking, care of children and cleaning. They will be supervised by a graduate nurse, who will visit each case at least twice a week, and more often if necessary. By this method one registered nurse can supervise about twenty attendants, and each patient will be protected by the efficiency and ethics of the profession.

This course has been made necessary by the shortage of nurses. There are in Virginia 1,000 graduates, more than 200 of whom are now in the Red Cross service and 356 additional nurses will be called by the first of next year. If one graduate registered nurse can care for twenty cases, the situation will have been met in a way to reflect great credit upon the State Board which is "blazing the trail" for the entire country. Women who are undergraduates or who have been nursing for years can be licensed without examination at the discretion of the board, and should apply immediately to Miss Julia Mellichampe, executive secretary, State Board of Health, Richmond Va.

"The Bondman" at Richmond Tonight

No lover of big motion pictures should miss William Fox's 1918 version of Hall Caine's "The Bondman," which will be shown today at the Richmond Theater. William Farnum, the star, was never better, and the story lends itself to his wonderful ability.

Margarita Fisher, whose flippant frolics on the screen have made her fan friends legion, has done more serious things as ably as the frivolous and "A Square Deal," at the surprise tonight is one of them. It goes over with the same vim and speed as her comedy dramas. It carries the endearing Fisher personality through five reels of entertainment.

SUGARLESS PIE FILLING

Can the Windfall Apples for Winter Pies—Sugar May Be Added When Baking the Pie—Department Gives Rules.

Washington, July 13.—Plenty of apple pies are guaranteed for Americans next winter in spite of the sugar shortage. Housewives are going to save the windfalls in pie-filling canned without sugar, according to specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. Apples canned by this method will be available later on when the sugar may be added or pies may be sweetened with syrups and other sugar substitutes.

In canning apples for pie filling slice them immediately after paring into slightly salted cold water. Pack the product carefully in hot glass jars or tin cans until full. Use a tablespoon, wooden ladle, or table knife for packing purposes. Pour boiling hot water over the product in the hot jar. Place rubbers and caps in position, not tight. Place in the sterilizer, vat, or canner, and sterilize for the length of time given below according to the particular type of outfit used:

Hot-water bath, homemade or commercial, 30 minutes.
Water seal, 214 degrees, 20 minutes.
Five pounds steam pressure, 12 minutes.
Ten pounds steam pressure, 10 minutes.

After sterilizing remove the filled containers. Seal jars; invert to cool and test the joints. Wrap in paper to prevent bleaching and store in a dry, cool place. If tin cans are used it will be found advantageous to plunge them into cold water immediately after sterilization to cool them quickly.

WAR-WEARY GERMANS

Victory Unattainable in 1918, They Face Hungry Winter.

London, July 13.—Germany's military masters realize that the war cannot be won this year. They are settling down to the grim business of "training" the people at home for a fifth war winter. They are entrenching for defense against the fiercest offensive yet launched in this war: The drive of starving, freezing, war-weary people.

That, and nothing else, is the answer to the Von Hintze puzzle, all well informed observers here agreed last night. That alone explains, they believe, why at this juncture an arch-militarist, and out-and-out "bitter ender," is flaunted in the face of the world as successor to the gentle Kuehlmann as secretary of state for foreign affairs.

With a batch of great map victories, yet without a semblance of a decision in the west; with the trans-Atlantic tide of fresh American troops rising, rising; and with every peace offensive shattered in the making only one course remained open; a brazen unmasking.

The slightest show of weakness at this stage—so argued the sword worshippers—would unchain the lurking tiger of rebellion at home and feed the defiantly growing lion outside: the allies war will.

So the velvet camouflage that looked like the invitation "Shake!" was torn off and the mailed fist was thrust out in all its ugly bluff and defiance, addressed both to the folks at home and abroad.

Thus came to be appointed as foreign minister one of the most accomplished international thugs gilded by the glitter of an admiral's uniform. He, however, is—if indications tell the future correctly—only the first of a series of junkie pillars that are to hold the house of Hohenzollern when the holocaust breaks.

Every remaining "weakling" or doubter is to be chopped off, and the semi-civilian government is to be converted into an out-and-out military—or, militarist, at least—cabinet, with Ludendorff openly at the head as military director, ruling with blood and iron at home, and keeping up the neck or nothing race against fate upon the battlefield.

Arthur Geisel, nine years old, of St. Louis, blew his breath on a smoldering firecracker and it exploded, tearing a hole in his tongue. As a result he will probably be unable to talk, physicians say.

TYPHOID ON THE WANE

No New Cases Reported—Sanitary Boxes Will Be Installed Monday In All Unsewered Sections—Seven Carpenters Building Boxes.

There are no new developments today in the sanitary probe being conducted here as a result of about forty-eight cases of typhoid fever.

The United States and state health authorities are still on the job.

According to A. S. Holway, acting chief engineer of the State Health Department, the building of the 400 sanitary boxes is progressing satisfactorily and the work of installing these boxes will be commenced Monday in all places in the unsewered sections of the city.

Seven carpenters are now engaged in the work of building the boxes and the cost of each box will be assessed against the property owners in whose houses they are installed.

During the past seventy-two hours no additional cases of typhoid fever have been reported. The forty-eight cases reported some time ago are all progressing satisfactorily, according to reports and there is no occasion for alarm regarding typhoid here, the physicians say.

A week ago this afternoon the ban forbidding soldiers from Camp Humphreys from either purchasing food or drink here was put into operation by Lieut. Colonel Park, and is still operative.

MRS. ELIZABETH C. DEAHL PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Deahl, eighty-one years old, widow of Addison W. Deahl, one of Alexandria's oldest residents, died shortly after 9 o'clock last night at her residence, 119 South St. Asaph street. The deceased is survived by one daughter and two sons, as follows: Miss Anna E. Deahl and Charles J. Deahl, this city, and Ernest E. Deahl, Washington.

She was a daughter of the late James L. Proctor. Her funeral will take place at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon from Grace P. E. Church and services will be conducted by the Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector.

ENTENTE LANDS BIG FORCE.

Troops Will Guard Allies' Supplies Against Freed Germans.

London, July 13.—"Considerable entente forces," have been landed on the Murman Coast and are guarding the railway to Petrograd, it is authoritatively learned. The landing was made at the request of the inhabitants of northern Russia, and the object of the move is to assist Russia. More entente forces are en route for the Murman Coast.

As a result of this landing, which has been expected for some time, it will be impossible for the Germans to occupy and convert into U-boat bases the ports of Murmansk and Petchenga, which are ice-free throughout the year. Furthermore, the presence of allied troops on the Murman Coast prevents the immediate isolation of Russia in the north by the Germans. If the Germans aim to bring about such an isolation they will have to fight for it, and the Murman Coast will be the extreme northern wing of a new "eastern front."

Dispatches from the northern regions state that the power of the Bolsheviks, with their 60,000 non-fighting troops, is waning fast.

President Wilson has sanctioned a detailed plan for allied aid to Russia and is ready to order United States soldiers to join allied forces to be sent to Siberia.

VON PAYER MAY QUIT

German Vice Chancellor Has Filed Resignation, to Take Effect If New Foreign Minister Proves Junker

Amsterdam, July 13.—Confirmation was received here today that Vice Chancellor Von Payer has filed his resignation, to be effective in the event that Admiral von Hintze, the new foreign minister, attempts to follow the aims and policies of the Pan-Germans.

BANK HOURS CHANGE

Financial Houses to Close an Hour Earlier Beginning Monday—Saturday's Schedule Unchanged—Will Relieve Employees of Night Work.

The four banks of this city beginning Monday will close every afternoon at 2 o'clock instead of 3 o'clock. On Saturday, however, they will be open from 9 until 12 m., as heretofore. This, therefore, means that the banking institutions of this city will close an hour earlier every afternoon beginning Monday than ever heretofore.

It is announced that this change is made in order to enable the employees of the banks to finish their work at a reasonable hour and relieve them of the necessity of working at night as they have been constantly compelled to do recently.

The four banks signing the order include Alexandria National, Burke and Herbert, Citizens' National and First National.

Those doing business with banks hereafter will have to deposit one hour earlier than heretofore as at 2 o'clock every afternoon, all of the banks in the city will close their doors for the day. Business houses should, therefore, govern themselves accordingly and see that their employees get to the banks before 2 o'clock in the afternoon hereafter, except Saturdays, when the old schedule will prevail on that day for closing.

HAD TO ENLARGE ENTRANCE TO GET MARINE FROM DUGOUT

With the American Forces in France, July 13.—The biggest soldier in any of the allied forces now serving in France has been discovered. He is a United States Marine! His name is Q. M. Sergeant Pat Grealy.

Grealy has always had the reputation of being a "whale of a man," but it wasn't until he got to dodging Boche shells in France that his fellow fighters fully realized just how big he was.

The first time an "alert" was sounded after his company got up front, Grealy made a dash for a dugout and got wedged tight in the entrance. All efforts to get him out were of no avail, until six former football stars in the company were called upon to "rush" him through.

They had to enlarge the entrance before they could get him out.

DEFINES VITAL POLICIES.

War Labor Board Goes Farther Than Employees Themselves Went in Demands.

Five policies of far-reaching consequence in the employment of labor were laid down yesterday by the National War Labor Board. They were:

1. Approval of the principle of the eight-hour day.
2. Insistence on the payment to labor of a "living wage."
3. Disapproval of the employment of children under 14 years of age on government contracts.
4. Disapproval of the direct or indirect employment on government contracts of prisoners who have been sentenced to hard labor.
5. Adoption of a dividing line between the war industries in which women should be employed and those in which they should not.

In the adopting of these principles, applied by the board in many instances to labor disputes pending before that body, the board, of which former President William H. Taft and Frank P. Walsh are joint chairmen, has not hesitated to go beyond the rival claims of the employers and the employees.

HINDENBURG RUMOR.

Report of Field Marshal's Illness all over Germany.

London, July 13.—A Dutch traveler from Germany, says a dispatch from The Hague to the Exchange Telegraph Company, declares the rumor has spread all over Germany that Field Marshal von Hindenburg is ill and unable to participate in the work at the army headquarters. The military duties there have been taken over entirely by First Quartermaster-General Ludendorff. German newspapers, the traveler says, are not permitted to mention the rumor.

PLAY GROUNDS ARE OPEN

Public Invited to See Children at Play. Equipped With Plenty of Games. Instructors on Hand to Supervise Work.

The playgrounds for the school children of the city recently established at Lee School grounds under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association, is now well equipped and is proving a big treat for the children who patronize it. The grounds are open to the children from 9 a. m. until 12 m., and from 3 until 8 p. m. daily.

Miss Ruth Deahl, this city, a student at the Harrisonburg Normal School, and Miss Elizabeth Hibbs, of the Alexandria High School, are in charge of the grounds and supervise the children who patronize the place.

Through the generosity of the Old Dominion Glass Company an abundance of white sand has been given for the sand boxes at the grounds.

In addition to the sand boxes there are various other kinds of amusements for the children including saw-saws, sliding boards, games of all kinds and also volleyball.

All are invited to come and see the grounds and the children enjoying the fun under the supervision of competent instructors. The grounds are maintained solely by voluntary subscriptions.

ALL BANKS TO HELP IN THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN

The report that only banking institutions qualified as United States government depositaries would be allowed to take subscriptions for the fourth Liberty Loan has been emphatically denied.

"The Treasury Department," says Secretary McAdoo, "desires that all banking institutions shall continue in the future as they have in the past patriotically to assist and co-operate during the various campaigns for the sale of government securities."

Secretary McAdoo's often expressed gratitude and appreciation of the patriotism and the wonderful effectiveness of the work of the banks of the country in the past Liberty Loan campaigns would seem absolutely to negate any idea that he would refuse to avail himself of their assistance in future campaigns.

VICTORIOUS DRIVES

Austrian Armies, Seriously Threatened, May Withdraw on Large Front.

Paris, July 13.—Attacking on the southern part of the battle field created by the German march drive on Amiens, the French yesterday morning advanced on a front of nearly three miles and captured the village of Castel and Auchin arm, as well as a series of strongly organized defense works.

More than 500 prisoners were taken, last night's war office communique states. The Poilus penetrated the German positions to a depth of more than one and a quarter miles.

While direct official confirmation from Rome of the fall of Berat, the great Austrian base in Albania, is still outstanding, dispatches to the Italian embassy in Washington leave no doubt that the town, which had been almost completely surrounded at last accounts from Paris and Rome, the French-Italian forces in their victorious northward rush along the eighty mile front between Lake Ochride and the Adriatic.

"DRY VOTE DELAYED"

Prohibition Leaders Agree to Side-track Final Settlement of Issue Until Latter Part of August.

With a series of three-day recesses by the Senate until August 26 in sight, following on the passage of the wire control resolution and disposition of pressing business, the final struggle over wartime prohibition will be deferred until the close of the coming month or early in September.

The agreement which the drys have assented to is not to vote on August 26 but to take up the food production bill, including the Norris dry amendment, at that time, and keep it before the Senate until disposed of.

AIRPLANE AT FUNERAL

Flowers Dropped From Above as Body of Lieut. Fawcett, Killed in Accident, is Lowered into Grave.

An airplane yesterday afternoon dropped flowers over the grave of Lieut. Richard Hartshorne Fawcett, this city, when the funeral cortege reached St. Paul's cemetery.

Lieut. Fawcett met his death last Monday at Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., when his machine fell a distance of several hundred feet.

Funeral services were held at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon at St. Paul's P. E. Church and were conducted by the Rev. Dr. P. P. Phillips, rector, and were attended by a large gathering of relatives and friends of the deceased.

Pallbearers were soldiers from Camp Humphreys, Va., and as the body was being lowered into the grave a salute was fired by a squad of soldiers from the same camp.

The floral offerings were handsome and numerous.

Services at Scott Field

The following account of the funeral services for Lieut. Fawcett held at Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., where he met his death, was written by Lieut. Yarbrough, escort from Scott Field.

"The remains of our brother officer and comrade, Richard Hartshorne Fawcett, Reserve Military Aviator, was conducted from off Scott Field post with the full military escort accorded his rank.

"The escort consisted of the post band, which led the procession, playing the funeral march at different intervals. Marching directly behind the band was the armed body guard consisting of eight non-commissioned officers.

Next in line came the body of Lieut. Fawcett borne upon the post caisson and draped with a large American flag. Marching on each side of the caisson were three pallbearers. Directly behind the caisson marched the flying officers, his brothers and comrades, paying the last tribute to a comrade fallen in arms.

At the station the officers were drawn up company front, parade rest. The guard presented salute, while the bugler sounded taps, the notes pealing out to the world that another son of Democracy had given his life in line of duty, leaving it to his comrades to carry on the work he loved on over the battle lines of France."

Germany Agasp at Americans

Geneva, July 13.—The great achievement of America in putting a million soldiers in France and Germany's diplomatic failure in Russia are the chief topics of conversation in Germany, according to a traveler who arrived from there today.

Strikes are now constant occurrences, and frequently the police sympathize with the strikers and fail to suppress the recurring disorders, it was stated.

Only the rich are able to buy sufficient food. The informant added that Germany could not possibly endure another winter of warfare.

DEATHS

DEAHL—Entered into rest July 12, 1918, at 9:15 p. m., ELIZABETH CATHERINE DEAHL, widow of Addison W. Deahl, in her 82d year, at her residence, 119 South St. Asaph street. Funeral from Grace Church, 5 p. m. Monday. 166-1t

In Memoriam.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son, OTIS R. SUNDERLIN, who died four years ago, July 13, 1914.

Four years ago dear Otis left us To join a band in heaven, And you left us sad and lonely With none on earth to fill your place. But there was an angel band in heaven Which was not complete So Jesus called our darling Otis To fill the vacant seat. So now my darling is in heaven Waiting there for me And I'll go when Jesus calls me To meet my darling boy again. By His Mother. 166-1t

GENERAL CLEAN-UP

Since the unnecessary scare concerning health conditions in Alexandria officials as well as private citizens have been earnestly at work eliminating everything unsightly and unsanitary in our city in order to show that there is nothing alarming here, although the military commandant at Camp Humphreys deemed it proper to forbid soldiers of that cantonment from eating or drinking in Alexandria.

Many residents in different sections where sewers have been placed have turned in orders to plumbers to make connections as soon as possible, rubbish is being removed, fires are kept burning in piles of debris in lots now being filled up, and the captain of the chain gang is visiting all quarters and exterminating weeds. He has but a small force, but he is bringing forth good results.

It has been suggested at times during the past few years that some of our city docks should receive attention. Several trunk sewers discharge their contents into docks, which at low tide not only exhibit unsightly accumulations but often cause are calculated to breed disease.

Reference was made yesterday by The Gazette to the fact that certain papers in other cities are magnifying conditions in Alexandria when there is no actual reason for any excitement whatever.

The Washington Post, however, reproduces an editorial from The Gazette which shows that the reports concerning health conditions in this city have been exaggerated, and that the ugly rumors and suggestions which are appearing here and there are libels upon our old town.

"The Bayonet," published at Camp Lee, in the issue of this week says:

"The ban on Hopewell and some of the neighboring towns, which was placed in effect by the military authorities recently, owing to the existence of insanitary conditions, has been lifted. The old order was canceled last week. The soldiers are beginning to visit these towns again after a period devoted exclusively to Petersburg and Richmond visits.

"A rigid inspection of restaurants, hotels and eating houses in Petersburg was made a short time before the Fourth of July crowd visited that city. Conditions were found unsatisfactory in several restaurants, and as a result they were ordered closed to soldiers."

BASTILLE DAY

Tomorrow is Bastille Day—the anniversary of the birth of freedom for the people of France. Every true American patriot will observe this day. France is our ally. Our cause is common. It is suggested that we fly the French flag tomorrow and honor the day otherwise.

The Bastille was for centuries an object of horror to every lover of Liberty in France. It was erected originally as a fortress, but in process of time was used exclusively as a place in which state prisoners were placed. "The Man of the Iron Mask" was confined in one of its dungeons.

While not disposed to give credence to all the tales told of the Bastille, the fact has been established that certain prisoners incarcerated in their young days became old men while awaiting a time to be brought before tribunals.

It had stood for years a landmark of horror, until the Parisians rose up in their might and obliterated this disgrace to civilization. A bronze monument surmounted a gilded Mercury now stands upon the site of the ancient Bastille.

The United States had barely been recognized as an independent power when the thrilling scenes in connection with the French revolution were being enacted. While Americans were not disposed to excuse all of the excesses of those days, the destruction of the Bastille was hailed with delight then, and it is meet that the anniversary of its demolition should be observed in this country tomorrow.

IS EVER ON THE ALERT

The Fairfax Herald says Congressman Carlin has always shown his interest in the wage earners by supporting measures for their benefit. He voted against the Borland bill that would have imposed an additional hour of work upon government employees without compensation, and voted to sustain the veto of the bill by President Wilson. Mr. Carlin deserves the support of the wage earner and will get it.

A sober-sided honorable politician of Alexandria once said: "Every man who holds a public trust should let his record speak for him and refrain from rushing into print every time so enemy makes an attack upon him."

He said this at a time when an exciting campaign was in progress in this city when candidates were being weighed in the balances.

Some of Mr. Carlin's enemies who are anxious to bring his Congressional career to a close are using weak belittles in futile attempts to fan into a flame flimsy reasons why, they think, his duties should be relegated to another.

Acting upon the suggestion of the Alexandria Herald, Mr. Carlin is not running to and fro in the district nailing this and that libel, but his friends, perfectly familiar with his course in Congress, occasionally call attention to facts which all should know.

Mr. Carlin has worked assiduously in the interests of every class he represents, and he will continue to do so.

Mr. Carlin has issued the following: "Congress having determined not to recess until all important matters are disposed of, it now appears that I will have but little, if any, opportunity to personally canvass the District in the interest of my re-nomination. This, of course, is a decided disappointment and may be a disadvantage, but in view of President Wilson's utterances, delivered to the Congress of the United States on May 27th, in whose views I concur, as well as my own convictions as to a proper discharge. There is no other course open to me except to remain at my post and discharge my duty to my Country and my people as best I can. This conclusion forces me to leave my personal interests in the hands of the people, confident that they will approve of my course and see that my interests are cared for.

The utterances of President Wilson referred to are, in part as follows: "We dare not go to the elections until we have done our duty to the full. These are days when duty stands stark and naked, and even with closed eyes we know it is there. Excuses are unavailing. We have either done or we have not. The consideration which dominates every other now and makes every other seem trivial and negligible is the winning of the war. There can be no pause or intermission. x x x That is the situation, and it is the situation which creates the duty, no choice or preference of our. There is only one way to meet that duty. We must meet it without selfishness or fear of consequences. Politics is adjourned. The elections will go to those who think least of it; to those who go the constituencies without explanations or excuses, with a plain record of duty faithfully and disinterestedly performed. I, for one, am always confident that the people of this Country will give a just verdict upon the service of the men who act for them when the facts are such that no man can disguise or conceal them. There is no danger or deceit now. An intense and pitiless light beats upon every man and every action in this tragic plot of war that is now upon the stage."

SUPPORT STATE HEALTH WORK

Every citizen of Alexandria should give their hearty co-operation to the State Board of Health. Officials representing this board are now in our city with a view of assisting in the work of giving it a general cleaning up. In this big task they have the assistance of the United States Public Health Service. All of the work, however, is under the direction of the State Health authorities.

It is the duty of every citizen to see that they are given unanimous support. If this is done their work will be greatly facilitated and before long the result which they are seeking to attain will be accomplished, and the ban placed by the military authorities keeping soldiers out of the city will have been lifted and once more our merchants will be enjoying the trade which they are now deprived of.

However, without the general support of the public the work undertaken by the state health authorities will lag and it will prove very hurtful to the city. Let us repeat again that all citizens should put their shoulders to the wheel and let the state health authorities see that they are willing to assist them in any manner possible in the task of making our city a cleaner, better and more healthful place to live in.

THE CRUEL HUN

The history of the world shows many acts of brutality upon the part of conquerors. Chaining dead men to live men was one of the favorite amusements of friends who at one time discomfited the Romans. Crucifixion was a conception of the latter. War practices of Sioux Indians have brought forth exclamations of horror from the civilized world, and some of the procedures of Germans will be read by future generations with the greatest disgust.

Forty British prisoners have been tortured to death by their Hun captors. The story of their murder was brought by a member of the Royal Naval division, who was captured in Antwerp in October, 1914, and only recently escaped and made his way to England. The prisoners literally were frozen to death—after having been forced to work back of the German firing line twenty-two miles from Libau. At the end of a grueling day the forty Britons were made to mount bricks. Then each was tied to a pole and the bricks were kicked away, leaving their feet hanging six inches from the ground. In this position they were kept for two and a half hours each night for fourteen nights. The cold was intense and the forty unfortunate men succumbed.

Naval Paymaster Hughes, of England, tells a story which will exasperate all who read it. A British patrol boat discovered a derelict submarine which had become unmanageable. Her crew was taken off and preparations were made to destroy the submarine with a depth bomb. The commander of the patrol asked the German captain if all were safely off the U-boat and was assured that no one was left on board. A tapping was heard, however, which aroused suspicion, and an investigation revealed four British seamen who had been locked in a room of the submarine. The German captain had concealed their presence hoping that they would be killed when the submarine was destroyed.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Frank Pattie, cashier of the People's Bank of Manassas, committed suicide several days ago. The reason for the act is not known.

Henry A. Wise, nephew of former Gov. Henry A. Wise, of Virginia, and cousin of John S. Wise, of New York, died in Norfolk Thursday night. Mr. Wise served with the Virginia Military Institute cadets in the battle of Newmarket and for 30 years was superintendent of the Baltimore public schools.

Reports have reached Norfolk, that wreckers had succeeded in salvaging a part of the sugar cargo of the American steamer Inca, which stranded on Curruck Beach on the North Carolina coast, July 1. The remainder of the cargo will be saved if the weather continues favorable. One barge load of the sugar is enroute to Norfolk in tow of a sea-going tug.

Edward Green and his wife, Olive Green, both colored, are in jail at Spotylvania Courthouse. The woman is charged with trying to poison the family of Dr. C. B. Morton, of Nottingham, and the man with trying to kill the grandson of Dr. Morton. The little boy had threatened to kill a dog owned by Green, who, it is alleged, said that if the boy hurt the dog he would kill the boy. Thursday all of the members of Dr. Morton's family who drank coffee were made violently ill, as though by poison. The street followed. A sample of the coffee is being examined.

HAIL IN VIRGINIA.

One of the Most Damaging Storms Which Has Visited the State in Many Years.

Danville, Va., July 13.—In a heavy rain, hail and electric storm in this vicinity yesterday afternoon, hail fell to a depth of nearly 6 inches near Danville. A country wagon driven through the storm had 4 inches of hail stones in it.

Richmond, Va., July 13.—A terrific hail storm, the worst in decades, swept over sections of southeast Virginia yesterday afternoon, doing great damage to crops and in many places destroying vegetation. The extent of the storm is not yet known, but the damage is expected to be heavy. Hailstones half an inch in diameter fell in torrents of rain, which has broken the drought that has been ruining crops. Rain has brought relief in the middle part of the State.

Lynchburg, Va., July 13.—The worst hailstorm in fifteen years visited this city and vicinity yesterday. War gardens were devastated, fruit, corn and vegetables being cut to pieces by hailstones as large as marbles. Greenhouses were damaged. The precipitation in 24 minutes was nearly 1 inch.

Martinsville, Va., July 13.—There was a heavy hailstorm at Stella, Patrick county, and Spencer, in this county, yesterday. Large corn crops and tobacco crops were ruined.

Durham, N. C., July 13.—Hail ranging in size from a buckshot to a partridge egg fell to a depth of three to four inches in a storm Thursday night between Wilton and Apex, N. C. Railroad trains passing through the section yesterday morning ran at the rate of three to five miles an hour and in many cases the crew was compelled to use shovels in clearing the tracks.

GERMANY BLEEDS RUSSIA.

Wants 7,000,000,000 Rubles War Indemnity and Wants it Quickly.

Paris, July 13.—German's claim for indemnity from Russia amounts to the round sum of 7,000,000,000 rubles, according to a report printed in the Berlin Vossische Zeitung of the work done by the mixed commission to take up consideration of claims growing out of the conclusion of the Brest-Litovsk peace.

This commission has concluded its sessions, during which the German representatives, says the newspaper, presented claims aggregating the amount named for war damages. Immediate settlement of the claim is asked, it is stated.

DOUBT DISAPPEARS.

No One in Alexandria Who Has a Bad Back Should Ignore This Double Proof.

Does your back ever ache? Have you suspected your kidneys? Backache is sometimes kidney ache. With it may come dizzy spells, Sleepless nights, tired, dull days, Distressing urinary disorders, Doan's Kidney Pills have been endorsed by thousands. Are recommended here at home. You have read Alexandria proof. Read now Alexandria sequel. Renewed testimony; tested by time. H. C. Smith, tailor, 919 1-2 King St., says: "I can't begin to describe the agony I suffered with my back. I tried other medicines, but nothing helped me until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured me in less than a month and today I am as free from backache as if I never had it."

OVER FOUR YEARS LATER Mr. Smith said: "I still consider Doan's Kidney Pills fine for kidney trouble. I never hesitate to recommend them." Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Smith had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Your Winter's Coal Supply

On account of rulings of the U. S. Fuel Administration, it seems doubtful if Virginia will receive sufficient anthracite coal to supply the demands. If present rulings are maintained, this shortage will be very great in Alexandria and we earnestly advise our customers to put in a reasonable amount of bituminous coal as a safeguard against a coal shortage next winter.

We are now securing some very fine bituminous coal which we believe will work in all characters of coal burners but the satrobe stoves.

Better Cooking by Electricity

Women have long known that electric cooking is cleaner, that it banishes all the dust and ashes of coal and wood and soot and fumes of gas. They have known that it makes the kitchen cooler; the air purer; that is the most convenient way to cook. Now they have the word of the women who stand for the most scientific cooking methods known, that electric cooking produces better results than any other means.

Let us demonstrate the various sizes of ranges and refer you to the satisfied electric range users.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A dispatch from Cambridge, Md., says: Salem district was visited by a severe storm Wednesday night, hail doing great damage. Exceedingly dry weather prevails in most sections of the county and both corn and tomatoes are suffering greatly.

The heaviest hailstorm in many years visited the vicinity of Laurel, Del., yesterday evening. Great damage was done. Fields of corn were stripped into ribbons, tomato vines cut to pieces and other crops damaged.

The Right Rev. Thomas F. Cusack, Bishop of the Catholic diocese of Albany, died in that city yesterday afternoon. Cancer, induced by intestinal trouble, was the cause of death.

An Australian "Monroe Doctrine" in the Southern Pacific was declared by W. M. Hughes, premier of Australia, in an address before the Pilgrims' Club in London this week. "I stand committed to an Australian Monroe Doctrine" in the Southern Pacific," said Premier Hughes. "Australia dare not assent to the return to Germany of her former possessions in the Pacific, because German control of those islands would mean German control of Australia."

Mrs. Ida Lamm, of Bailey, N. C., 16 years old, was shot and killed at her home at that place Thursday morning and Hoover Lamm, her 18-year-old husband, has been arrested and lodged in jail at Nashville, charged with the killing.

A German submarine, appearing 300 miles off Cape Race on July 6, captured the Norwegian bark Manx King, and ordered the crew of 19 to take to the boats. The survivors were brought to an Atlantic port on a British steamship, which picked them up at sea. The survivors said they did not know what became of the bark, whether she was sunk or converted into a raider by the Germans.

The furniture "famine" is becoming alarming in Germany. Prices for second-hand furniture have doubled. Restrictions upon sales have been placed by several municipalities, and in many cases, advertisements have been forbidden.

Owing to the grave shortage in food cholera is on the increase in Petrograd and hundreds of persons are daily falling victims to it.

A refugee from Berlin who has reached Berne, reports that the shooting of army deserters in the streets is common. The city council has entrusted the war office to take steps to afford protection to peaceful passers-by against shots fired at deserters.

Owaneco, a small village near Springfield, Ill., is so good it has neither minister nor village marshal. Not a single arrest has been made for a year. That explains the negligence of the population in securing a successor to the one pastor who resigned some time ago.

"You don't want a policeman. Get a doctor." This was the advice given Miss Mary Williams when she went to the police station in Uniontown, Pa., to explain that her pet dog had swallowed her diamond ring, valued at $150.

Nobles Sell Their Land

Italian Army Headquarters, July 13.—Austrian prisoners confirm the reports that a large number of noblemen are selling off their estates in Bohemia and Moravia. It is said that Count Czernin, former Austro-Hungarian foreign minister, has sold for 3,000,000 crowns all his lands in Bohemia, and that the purchaser was a bank with agricultural interests.

It is also stated that Count Henry Clam-Martini, former premier, expressed the opinion in Vienna that a revolution was probable in Moravia and he, therefore, was selling his lands there.

BULGARIA FACES RUIN

Recent Dispatches Show Internal Conditions There Are Similar to Those in Austria.

London, July 13.—Bulgaria, facing starvation and ruin, may be the first of the Central Powers to desert the kaiser.

Recent dispatches show that internal conditions in Bulgaria are rapidly approaching a state similar to those in Germany and Austria—particularly in Austria.

Hundreds of people are dying from starvation and disease. Outbreaks of the civilian population have been repressed by barbarous methods. Both the army and the people of Bulgaria are clamoring for peace.

The army has been so weakened by deaths and desertions that the class of 1918 has been sent into the first-line trenches.

With conditions such as these facing him at home, Czar Ferdinand, who is, with one exception, Europe's most despicable and unprincipled ruler, is demanding so much in the way of territorial concessions in the Balkans that the kaiser is having trouble to keep him in the war.

Turkey and Bulgaria have never been able to settle their fringes over the spoils of the Balkan war of 1912. Bulgaria's extravagant demands cannot be satisfied except at the expense of Turkey.

Therefore the kaiser and his minions are face to face with the task of pacifying both of their Balkan allies.

Kaiser Wilhelm has so far favored his dear friend and fellow-despotic, Czar Ferdinand, and there is reason to believe that he has secretly promised Ferdinand to help him realize his ambition to become Emperor of the Balkans.

But if he makes good this promise, Wilhelm will have Turkey's now Sultan and a big Turkish army on his neck. Turkey controls the destinies of more people than Bulgaria, and it also controls the southern end of the kaiser's "Berlin-to-Bagdad" aspirations.

So if it came to a real clash between Turkey and Bulgaria, which is now threatening, the chances are the kaiser would stand by Turkey and let Bulgaria go hang. In which case Czar Ferdinand would drop out of the war.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly... Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then... it would last... two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three... I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children. Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years. Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

"The Firefly of France"

Story deals with the adventures of a rich young American who joins the Ambulance Corps "somewhere in France" and becomes entangled in the plotting of German spies. Vibrant with patriotism.

ters, except the taking of prisoners, the American invasion of Europe, and the great aid being rendered by the Americans to the entente allies is causing much anxiety at German imperial headquarters.

People cannot understand, the German officer said, why the successful German submarine is unable to prevent a million Americans landing in France. The Germans, he added, are learning the truth only through foreign newspapers.

The Swiss Le Democrat sarcastical remarks in this connection that it is "prudent and safer for German submarines to sink unarmed hospital ships than to attack a protected American troop ship."

Meat Must Be Sold

Fresh meat is perishable. It must be sold within about two weeks for whatever it will bring.

A certain amount of beef is frozen for foreign shipment, but domestic markets demand fresh, chilled, unfrozen beef.

Swift & Company cannot increase prices by withholding meat, because it will not keep fresh and salable for more than a few days after it reaches the market.

Swift & Company cannot tell at the time of purchasing cattle, what price fresh meat will bring when put on sale. If between purchase and sale, market conditions change, the price of meat must also change.

The Food Administration limits our profit to 9 per cent on capital invested in the meat departments. This is about 2 cents per dollar of sales. No profit is guaranteed, and the risk of loss is not eliminated.

As a matter of fact, meat is often sold at a loss because of the need of selling it before it spoils.
